

12 Night Ultimate Marathon Tour from Beijing

TOUR

April 13th - 25th 2024

12 nights in North Korea + Beijing-Pyongyang travel time

OVERVIEW

Hit the streets of Pyongyang for the 2024 Pyongyang Marathon with over 50,000 people cheering you on as you cross the finish line for that Olympic finish you've only ever daydreamed about. Then ease into your North Korean adventure with visits to the industrial city of Nampo on the west coast to tour local industries, before heading north to Pyongsong where it's time for school and you'll have the opportunity to assist students with their English class.

Returning to Pyongyang it's time to explore the capital in-depth including the Fatherland Liberation War Museum and captured spy ship USS Pueblo, shopping with locals at Kwangbok Supermarket, and delving underground to ride on the Pyongyang Metro.

It will then be time to limber up and get your game face on for Taekwondo class - Korea's national martial art. The class will be at Pyongyang's Taekwondo Arena on Sports Street, the national Taekwondo training academy. A great opportunity for some exercise with a local flavour!

We will be in Pyongyang for The Day of the Sun - the birthday of Eternal President Kim Il Sung - one of the most important dates in the North Korean calendar. For this we can expect a day of merriment for the locals as they enjoy their day off celebrating with picnics in parks, participating in mass dancing events, and then gathering together at Kim Il Sung Square to watch the incredible fireworks display at night.

Following this, we'll then head south to Kaesong and the DMZ, where North and South Korea continue their face-off. We will then move things up a gear and head over to the beautiful east coast of Korea.

Tour the port city of Wonsan including a schoolchildren's camp and the country's largest agricultural university. The tour then heads north to Hamhung which is North Korea's second-biggest city, and then further into the countryside to get to the famous Pujon Highlands and its stone river.

A location well off the beaten track and very rarely visited by foreigners!

DAILY ITINERARY

APRIL 12 – FRIDAY

Pre-Tour Briefing | We require all travelers to attend a pre-tour briefing that covers regulations, etiquette, safety, and practicalities for travel in North Korea. The briefing lasts approximately one hour followed by a question and answer session. Please be punctual for the briefing. You can come early, meet your fellow travelers, pay any outstanding tour fees and browse our collection of Korean art. A proper briefing is an essential part of travel to North Korea.

For Pyongyang Marathon tours, we will hold several briefings - in the morning for those departing by train in the afternoon, and in the afternoon for those departing by flight the next day.

AM

- Recommended latest arrival in Beijing.
- 10:00 | Train Departure - your briefing will be held at this time in Beijing

PM

- 14:00 / 16:00 / 18:00 | Flight Departure - briefings will be held in the afternoon on this day in Beijing at these times, you only need to attend one briefing (exact times offered to be confirmed.)
- 17:00 | Train travellers depart Beijing Station by domestic sleeper train to Dandong, the Chinese city on the border with the DPRK. Please arrange independent travel to the train station and arrive at least an hour and a half early for the train departure.

Overnight | Hotel in Beijing not included in the tour for those taking the flight the next day. Contact us for recommendations near our office! Those travelling by train will spend the night on the train.

APRIL 13 – SATURDAY

Arrival day in Pyongyang

AM

APRIL 15 – MONDAY

Pyongyang

The Day of the Sun – one of the DPRK's largest holidays. April 15, 2024, is the 112th anniversary of President Kim Il Sung's birth

On April 15th there may be large-scale celebrations in Pyongyang. A Military Parade is possible, in which case the itinerary for the day will be subject to change. Foreign travellers are typically allowed to view military units as they exit the city from the parade course and the city's residents come out en masse to greet them. Be prepared to potentially wait around for a few hours, but it will be well worth it. For The Day of the Sun we also expect student-organised mass dances at prominent locations throughout the city and the possibility of evening fireworks. Whatever happens this holiday, it will be impressive and unforgettable. Not to be missed!

AM

THIS DOCUMENT CANNOT BE TAKEN INTO KOREA

- We start this day with a guided walk around Pyongyang - see some street life, some little known spots, unvisited monuments and landmarks - wear some good shoes for this very unusual way to experience the capital city of the DPRK on a major national holiday.
- Moranbong Park | We'll take a stroll and have picnic lunch in Pyongyang's central park popular with locals for picnics, dances, and sports. The park is filled with historic pavilions, walls, and monuments- modern and ancient, a few of which are among the traditional 'Eight Great Sights of Pyongyang'.

PM

- Kimilsungia and Kimjongillia Flower Exhibition | Exhibit of the two flowers named after the DPRK's leaders and held on the occasion of their respective birthday anniversaries in February and April. See organizations and groups from across society compete to put on the best floral display.
- Artistic Performance | Expect to see a performance on the day, while the type of performance is to be confirmed we have been able to see circus, musical and other performances on this day, typically 20-50 EUR per person depending on nature of performance.
- Mass Dance | Large student organised dances held around Pyongyang on major holidays (weather dependent). Join in the fun!
- Fireworks over the Taedong River | watch with thousands of locals in Kim Il Sung Square as this holiday comes to an end. Wonderful mingling opportunities in a festive atmosphere

Overnight | Yanggakdo Hotel, Pyongyang.
